

Ahura Resorts Fiji Appoints New Group General Manager

For Likuliku Lagoon Resort and Malolo Island Resort

Ahura Resorts is delighted to announce the appointment of Mr Bradley Calder as Group General Manager to the 100% Fijian owned and multi award-winning resort management company for Likuliku Lagoon and Malolo Island Resorts.

Owner and Managing Director Tony Whitton said, "We are delighted to welcome Bradley and his wife Agnieszka to Fiji and Ahura Resorts. Bradley comes to us with a wealth of international experience in private islands, luxury and family resorts.

Bradley arrives to Ahura from a five year posting as Group General Manager for the luxury 5-star Hurawalhi Island Resort and Kudadoo Island Resort in the Maldives, and prior to that, he worked four years as Resort Manager at Gili Lankanfushi also in the Maldives. Bradley has also held a number of key roles in the four-star resort family segment including Executive Assistant Manager at Hard Rock Hotel Bali for four years and, three years at the Warwick Fiji Resort & Spa in Fiji."

Bradley and Agnieszka say, "We are very excited to return to beautiful Fiji after so many years, and to share our experience with the people of Fiji so that they may continue to grow and meet the ever-evolving expectations of our resort guests. We also feel privileged to be working with the Whitton family and the Ahura team, whose strong community values align so closely with our own."

A New Zealand native, Bradley has a degree in Hospitality Management, accompanied by a strong foundation in food and beverage, then going on to broaden his skills in human resources, rooms, sales and marketing, finance and resort pre-opening.

Bradley will be joined by his wife Agnieszka Calder who has worked with him in the UK, New Zealand, Indonesia and Maldives. Agnieszka also joins Ahura Resorts as Manager, Guest Experience and will oversee the Ahura Resorts Conservation Foundation.

"My wife Brigid and I are delighted to partner with a couple of this calibre - with extensive international experience in the family and luxury segments, and who share our passion for excellence. Both our resorts are re-nowned as high-quality products with outstanding customer service standards and, have won numerous Fiji Excellence in Tourism awards - with Likuliku the first to achieve "Hall-of-Fame" status", said Tony Whitton. As a proud Fijian company with strong ties to the local community combined with a high standing on the international stage, we are excited to work with Bradley and Agnieszka to build on our strong foundations and steer us boldly into the future."

Ahura was an ancient god of creations who symbolised life, kindness, equality, care of the environment, charity, loyalty and faithfulness to settlement, tribe and county. The omnipresent sun was an enduring symbol of radiance, purity and life sustenance. Today, Ahura Resorts embodies these same values. As a 100% Fijian-owned company, with nearly 50 years' experience in tourism and hospitality throughout the Pacific, Ahura is dedicated to providing quality holiday and lifestyle experiences while preserving cultural values and the surrounding environment. Ahura is the management company operating two of Fiji's most popular, award-winning and iconic resorts - Malolo Island Resort, and the luxury escape for adults-only featuring Fiji's first and only authentic over-water bures - Likuliku Lagoon Resort.
